Most purchasing decisions are made in Rosemont, except for Reinhart Foods who is still buying from the local Wisconsin folks through a buying group. Your best bet is to try to get the plants to spec your equipment and then contact me to help push it here in Chicago.

Any field support or information you have will help us establish ourselves with this account. I have attached a Martin Brower Facility list for your review. Thanks for your support, please contact myself or Jackie Lee with any questions. (ahjlee@hyster.com)
